Definition: An arrangement in which an HLC-accredited institution develops an agreement with an institution or group of institutions that is, the consortial party(ies) through which the consortial party(ies) agree to provide some portion of one or more educational programs (i.e., degrees or certificates offered for academic credit) offered by the HLC-accredited institution.

Consortium