COEHS Vision and Mission

MISSION

Provide an exceptional, relevant, experiential education which prepares professionals to effectively lead and serve across multiple service professions within a diverse society.

VISION

To be the most recognized and highly regarded college for the preparation of educational and human services practitioners and leaders.

The quality of our academic and co-curricular experiences is our competitive advantage.

: Our academic programs prepare our students for jobs of the next decade.

Enhance course syllabi and Canvas Shells to better highlight course learning objectives, explain why these objectives are important, and illustrate how these concepts apply to their future employment.

Our colleges' signature programs differentiate who we are.

Differentiate the college programs by creating and/or redesigning programs consistent with national standards ensuring alignment with the pillars of RISE and High Impact Strategies

Our engaged learning curriculum is the hallmark of the Lindenwood experience.

Advance the use of technology through realworld simulations, authentic, and engaging learning experiences which prepare completers to be proficient in delivering services and instruction via digital platforms.

We have systematic processes for evaluating & improving the student experience.

Our spaces are suitable and supportive for our students.

We work with diverse community partners who seek to build a vibrant, equitable, and sustainable world.

We are a community-engaged campus.

Administration, faculty, and staff will be visible in the community to support each other, promote shared decision-making, and maintain an interest in the success of the greater community

We serve as a hub of research, knowledge exchange, and creative activity.

We are a first-choice partner for creative educational opportunities.
